

PET PEACE OF MIND TRAINING

Hospice SLO County Pet Peace of Mind Volunteer Training Friday, December 13th & Friday, December 20th 4–7 pm

Do you have a big heart for animals? Are you looking to make a difference in your community? Consider joining our two-day Pet Peace of Mind volunteer training! Both dates are required.

Pet Peace of Mind is a national program designed to provide volunteer assistance to keep humans and their beloved animals together through the end of life. In this training, you will learn about:

- Elder pet needs
- Basic hygiene and animal grooming
- Safe pet handling and transporting
- Hospice care
- Anticipatory grief and bereavement
- Supporting a pet through a difficult time in their lives

Preregistration is required. Training is free to attend.
Donations always gratefully accepted.

To preregister, visit www.hospiceslo.org or call (805) 544-2266
